That Made Milwaukee Famous.

At the various Copper Country moving picture theaters, during the week ending March 17th, a distinct gain over the previous record and which taxed each of the theaters to the extreme limit of it's capacity during the period stated. However extra provision will be made by the different play houses and additional shows will be given during the coming week's, in an effort to accomodate all who desire to attend,

Every newspaper advertiser in this district has drawn a lesson from these tremendous audiences, knowing full well that almost everyone who visited the "Kathlyn" performances, was influenced to attend by
